The Ultimate Concert Grand: What makes a truly successful concert grand piano is its ability to reveal all the nuances of the magnificent world of music.

The 280VC Vienna Concert Grand enables this at the highest level. When required, it can assert itself admirably amid an entire orchestra with the sheer volume and reach of its sound. Its vocal tonality and subtle variety of timbres carry even the most delicate pianissimo to the very last row of the largest thousand-seater venues. Exceptionally versatile, this concert grand is at home in all musical genres and epochs, with an effortless and playful ability to bridge cultural worlds. While more than ready to shine in the limelight of a solo concert, it can function as perfectly as a member of a chamber orchestra or in an ensemble. The vocal tonality also lends itself beautifully to Lied accompaniment.

Experience the captivating world of sound and emotion. Experience the radiant concert sound of the 21st century — the Bösendorfer 280VC Vienna Concert, in Legendary Maestro's, Sir Andreas Schiff words:

"All instruments try to imitate the human voice, yet this instrument is doing so on a very, very high level. It is truly a singing instrument!" Sir András Schiff on the Bösendorfer Concert Grand 280VC - Vienna Concert

It is for this reason that Bösendorfer grand pianos are often referred to as magical instruments. The famous Bösendorfer Sound—its sonorous and warm bass, angelic and brilliant treble, and breathtaking spectrum of colours within the middle range—is Bösendorfer's trademark.
